FOR WHO IS OUR SERVICE INTENDED?

for: children
teens

with: developmental disorders various disabilities behavioral disorders
emotional difficulties
...

and for:
families in problematic and/or burdened situations

OUR STAFF MEMBERS

come to work with you at your home and are trained in various professions:

Psychologist, pedagogue/education researcher, occupational therapist, speech therapist, social worker, early-years facilitator, social advisor, social pedagogue

WHAT DO WE OFFER?

THERAPEUTIC PEDAGOGY AND SUPPORT FOR YOUR CHILD AT HOME

Holistic developmental facilitation

- in areas of perception, motor function, speech, cognition, emotion, interaction
- that follows an individual concept of facilitation according to specialized standards

Support in coping with everyday life in a familiar environment

Practical assistance and counselling for family unites

Support in parenting competences

Networking with various institutions
E.g. Kindergartens, schools, medical and therapeutic facilities

In our work, it is essential to see young people in their entirety, observe their needs and support the use of their potential and resources. Through regular facilitation in a domestic setting, disabilities and their impact on everyday life can be perceived and together with both the parents and children, a plan for appropriate facilitation can be made.

WHAT ARE OUR GOALS?

Goals of our work are:

- strengthening of skills and abilities
- expand competences to act
- enable the participation of social, educational and professional areas of life
- to support the greatest amount of independence and individual autonomy
- families in burdened situations and to support them in handling everyday life

HOW WILL MY ASSISTANCE/SUPPORT BE FINANCED?

As a recognized institution of Tyrol, the costs of the service can be covered by the social department of Tyrol

- Applications for disabilities recognized under the Participation Act (Teilhabegesetz) can be filed at the social department
- With general domestic problems, the youth welfare office (Kinder- und Jugendhilfe) can initiate or endorse family support
